Jake was an old family friend. My parents knew his parents before I was born. Jake, Josh and Tiffany and my siblings grew up together. We left for California and didnt reunite with them till 2004. It was good times, of drinking in the Garage outside of his Grandparents house. I still remeber the time, jake , my sister vanessa, Josh and I, all took a road trip to california. My purse was stolen and Jake tried all he could to get my car to start... After costing me 800.00 lol... I look back and laugh. It wasnt so funny then, but hey bad things happen. He was a caring guy, always into his cars, wether it was driving them, or fixing them. He loved kids, and was always great with them. He was a Great son, a Great Uncle and a Great Brother and Friend! He will be missed. We Love you jake and will Miss You!!!

You are so loved Jake. A lot of people are hurting right now. At least you won't be hurting anymore. I can see God taking you in his arms telling you everything will be ok. You are such a good person (I refuse to use past-tense). I'm sorry my kids never got to really know their Uncle. I wish they could have. I will always love you and will remember you always. May God bless you and everyone hurting from this.
