Michelle Davidson - Radcliff, Ky - Friend posted:

Lisa was a very dear friend and a valued employee who was loved and cherished on so many levels. Her loss to us is certainly God's gain to have a genuine angel in heaven with him. There are not enough words to describe the grief and pain we are all bearing in regards to losing such an inspiring and incredible woman. Not too mention an amazing wife and mother. Our prayers are with all of you as well as the prayers from our church, Vine Grove Baptist. Our only happiness is truly found in Gods word that she was saved and is no longer in the pains of this world. Our daycare, our family and our hearts will always remember and cherish the special moments and the time spent with Lisa which not only enriched our lives, but made us better as human beings. Her smile and aura she had was one of a kind. It will forever remain a loving and constant memory of how truly blessed we were to have had her in our lives. As an employer, there simply is no replacing her as she set the bar so high. I know she is smiling down upon us with Jesus and does not want us to grieve any longer. I thank God for all the years of friendship. All our love The Davidson family.
