I grew up next door to Catherine when we lived on Idlewood Drive in Amherst and she was like an Auntie to me. She cut my hair for years, and was always there for me in so many ways. She and Ed were wonderful neighbors and they both will always have a place in my heart.

I have many many fond memories of my visits to Aunt Catherine & Uncle Ed's house. When I close my eyes I can still smell Uncle Ed's immaculate garage & Aunt Catherine's baking.
