The first memory that strikes me is of my grandfather thinking aloud that he could not believe that his baby sister was turning some age, I can't remember the age now. His "Baby" sister, it made me change the way I thought of Aunt Al a little. I will always remember her with a warm smile and open arms. That memory makes me wonder if it's not us losing Aunt Al, but Gramps getting his baby sister back. Rosa and I cannot say how sorry we are for your loss and that you are all in our prayers

My Grandparents were the Cejkas who were dear friends and neighbors of the Sages on Eighth St. My mother was Genevieve Cejka Roling and her sister, Rose Cejka Diedrick were always speaking of Alvaretta and Virginia and the pranks they would always pull. The families were so close and the memories are so many. Please know that myself and my sister, Shirley Roling, are thinking of all of you and the wonderful stories we grew up on and laugh about even to this day. Friendships like these are what gives life special meaning. You are in our prayers. Jean Roling Baumann

I've always called her Mom. She was like a second mom, since I was so close to Kimmie. I will always remember the wonderful birthday party's she had for you Kimmie, especially the one with Ronald McDonald. And I think she enjoyed those parties as much if not more than we did. She was a Beautiful person, a wonderful mom and you all were so fortunate to have her in your life. So was I, and she will be dearly missed. I know she is rejoycing with the angels.
