Going on two years later and I am still missing you as much now as I did two years ago. Whenever something good or bad happened in my life you were the one I called on. You never cared what time of day or night I called you as a matter of fact most of our conversations took place in the wee hours of the night. One thing for sure this world is a little bit dimmer without you in it, at least for me. You will always be in my heart. Until the day we meet again I will be missing you!!!!!!!

Tommy and I had so many happy memories together...laughing and dancing and joking around. Two memories stick out the most. One was on a night that he needed a ride home from the Boot Scoot. I drove him home there on Abbe Road. I was going through a rough time. He invited me in for coffee and just to talk. We sat there and he cared enough to tell me to keep going and encouraged me to talk it out with regards to some things we were discussing, and then hugged me and made me laugh. He is such a great guy- a wonderful and caring person with a great sense of humor. He also taught me a few dances that night- Good Brown Gravy and the dance we did to Put Some Drive in Your Country. ha ha..he had me laughing and feeling better when I was really down. He always knew just how to lift someone's spirits up. ha ha..The other memory was when my girlfriend, Erin, and I went to the Cleveland Zoo to watch the dance team perform and Tommy hung out with us just talking and laughing. It was a good day. We all had a really good time. I've danced with Tommy up at the Boot and with a lot of others. I miss those days, but I will forever hold fond memories of Tommy in my heart. It's so sad to lose him here, though. He will forever be missed. :(Deepest condolences to your family, Tommy. I know the loss they feel inside right now. I lost my mother, a boyfriend, and many others in my lifetime and I know the pain, hurt, and emptiness that they feel. I pray that God will comfort them in this time and I know that they know that you are smiling down on them and that you are near and dear in their hearts. You had so many talents, Tommy. You touched people's lives in ways that you couldn't even comprehend. Love you and miss you, buddy.God Bless,Connie Stewart

I can't remember when Tommy and I first met. All our memory's kinda mesh. Tommy and I were best friends and Brother's in heart and soul. I have so many memory's that i could not tell you my best of him, They were all so great. But I'm going to try. Tom and I did what most kids do. He told his MOM he was staying at my house and told mine the same. We decided to go to a friends house at 4 in the morning. When we got there Wes was sleeping on the pool table in the basement so Tommy and me started pounding on the window and screaming Wes's name. Not for one minute thinking that it's 4 am. We kept at it for about 10 minutes when Tommy's eyes got as big a saucers. He looked right at me and yelled RUN. I turn around to see Wes's DAD standing behind me holding a rifle. Tom and I ran till we reached the river, Only to find out that a neighbor had called the cops, and that they had found us... Well they didnt get us. That was the last time we did that. Miss you Tom,,, Love you bro.....

My surpise can't be explained. When told, I asked "Do you mean Back-Flip Tom?" That was the title he wore with pride and it made both Boots wild & crazy places to go for fun. We enjoyed his visits to our own club, The Kountry Klub, in Elyria, too. Tom always raised excitment in a room. His charm will be missed. R.I.P.

I Tears Could Built A Stairway
If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane, I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again. No farewell words were spoken, No time to say "Goodbye", You were gone before I knew it, and only God knows why. My heart still aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow, What it meant to love you - No one can ever know. But know I know you want me to mourn for you no more: To remember all the happy times, life still has much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today - A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay. With all our love and sympathy Wayne & Lisa Coleman.

Tommy & I met years ago on Myspace. Through the years we would always seem to find each other on whatever site we were on....Myspace, MyYearbook & Facebook. Tommy's personality was something that is a rare find in this world. I was wrestling with the idea of going back to school for a degree in Veterinary Technology when Tommy passed. After knowing him & reading that he might have lost his life to save his animals, I have decided to go for it. I know he would have wanted me to. Tommy has been an inspiration in life & in death. I will miss talking to him & seeing his comments on my profiles. To Sue I just want to say thank you for giving us all a chance to know Tommy. To Gina, even though I have never met you I can tell that you & Tommy were close & very lucky to have each other. I wish I could make it to the celebration of his life, but please know that I will be celebrating his life every time I help an animal.
