Dear Jenkins Family, We were very sad to hear of David's passing. I would run into David from time to time and it was always good to talk with him for a few minutes. Sometimes he looked better than others but he didn't really dwell on his problems he was always more interested in hearing how someone else was doing or who I'd seen lately. I just spoke with him again a couple weeks ago, at a bank, he was making arrangements to help another friend. I walked away feeling sad because I could tell he wasn't feeling all that well, but also heart-warmed because here was a guy not doing so well himself, but instead of feeling sorry for himself was setting about to help someone else. May he rest in peace comfortably in Our Lords Hands.

To the Jenkin's Family - My deepest sympathy to all of you. I went to high school with Dave and in future year's, he would stop at the bowling center and have a cup of coffee, while he was on his meter reading route. I ran into him several weeks ago and he was so upbeat on getting better. As always, he would never dwell on his illness, just asked about everyone in my family. Dave will be deeply missed - he was a wonderful, kind person. He suffers no more, may he rest in peace.

Dear Joe, Kay, Tom, Karen, "Boomer" and Jane Ann:Sincere condolences on your loss of David. I have so MANY fond memories of baby sitting for David and the rest of you "kids" so many years ago. Rich and I have run into Dave several times through the years and he always hadhis big smile, and gave me a hug and kiss. When I worked at the front desk in human resources at Lorain Products, Dave would stop by every month or so to "test" our water for the City of Lorain Utilities Dept and we would always chat for a few minutes.. He kept me up to date on the family and where everyone was living.You were "my family" for many years and I shall neer forget any of you! My mom passed away seven years ago at the age of 90. Rich and I celebrated our 40th wedding anniversary last year and Jason is married (almost 12 years) to a wonderful girl, Valerie - but no grandchildren - just two grand dogs (Chocolate Labs - Archie and Emma).The old neighborhood on Iowa Avenue just isn't the same and I haven't been past my mom's house since she died.I shall miss seeing Dave around Lorain, but know that he is in a better place and at peace with God.Love to each of you, and know that I think of you often.Cheryl & Rich Deptula2704 Marshall Ave.Lorain, OH 44052440-960-2811deptulascircus@centurytel.net

Sending my deepest condolences to Dave's family. It was so sad to hear about his passing. In the 20 plus years that I knew Dave, the first thing that came to mind is how much his family will miss him, his family meant everything to him and how very important they were, whenever he talked about any member of his family he would be grinning from ear to ear and you could see the pride and joy he felt talking about his brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews, he truly cared about his family and he knew how much they cared about him, he will be missed very much by so many people that he has touched during his life. Anybody that knew Dave would tell you that he was really a great guy, he was willing to help anyone if they needed it, and was always thoughtful and friendly and yes I agree with the other poster he was always smiling and if you ran into him somewhere he would stop to talk and ask how things were going. He fought a long tough battle but never gave up hope, RIP Dave.
