I can't begin to explain in words how the loss has made me feel, but I will try. I met John a few years back as my boss at Rysar and wasn't sure what to think the first time I met him. I quickly learned what a great man he was and learned that more when I worked for him at Bluestone. He always was smiling, drinking coffee, listening to Sirius radio, focused on work and always talking about his grandson and family. He taught me so much about my job and what it was to be a good person. We always greeted each other the same way everyday "What's going on!!" and Ill never forget that in his raspy voice. I am sad to say Ill never get to greet him that way again. All my love is with your family, may you rest in peace John, you will be missed!! Jonathan Oswick

Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know that are happy. Rest in peace John.

My thoughts and prayers go out to Lynda the girls and grand babies! John was such a wonderful man, always laughing and joking. He was the best boss I've ever had, so down to earth and easy to get along with. I was fortunate enough to know him and his wife very well and enjoyed working with his daughters as well. John will be truly missed, I can only imagine the hurt his family is experiencing. May God comfort you in your time of need, and may you cherish each other and everyday you have for we never know when it may be our last! And may we all learn to live our life so full of happiness and joy and not let the stresses of life get us down! Keep the memories of John close to your heart. May God Bless and Comfort You!
