Char and Family, It been quite some time since we had seen Jeff. Sadly we lost touch over the years. Bill and Jeff were good friends growing up through school. Bill has many great memories of their times together. I too had some fun times hanging out with them! Jeff was such a friendly, outgoing guy and he had a smile that could light up any room. Whenever I seen Jeff he was always smiling! Since we lost touch over the years I had no idea how ill Jeff really was. When Bill went up to Hospice to see him it broke his heart. When I seen Jeff today my heart too was filled with so much sadness. I thought about all the pain and suffering he must have gone through. I thought to myself...why him..... Life can be so unfair and uncertain. I always thought the two of you made such a great couple. The loss of a loved one is never easy. We hope that in your times of sadness you'll find comfort in the memories the two of you shared. Believe that Jeff is once again smiling. His pain and suffering is gone. He is at peace and in a much better place, a place that we can only imagine and pray for. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and also with Jeff's family. We are very sorry about your loss. Jeff truly was a great guy! Love and Prayers- Bill and Judy Dobbins

Dear Charlene, I am so sorry for your loss of Jeff! It was fun selling him a truck because he was just so into it. You know what I mean? He and I last spoke when he was in the clinic about six months ago. I really admired his courage and his desire to get his affairs in order for you two. Sometimes life seems so unfair. I just want to extend to you my best wishes. I promise that I will pray for you and may God grant you peace, comfort and love in the days ahead. I won't pretend to say, "I know how you feel." But I do know what it is like to lose a valuable part of one's life. I would like to share with you that the pain will eventually go away if you focus on the good things and the good memories. It's ok to laugh and to cry and to live your life to the fullest. I am sure Jeff wouldn't want it any other way! Take care of yourself and God bless you! Fondly, Vince Urbin
