Nichole, Nick, Natalie and all family and friends of Terry, we send you love as you mourn his passing. You're in our thoughts and prayers.We pray you enough sun to keep your attitude bright no matter how gray the day may appear. We pray you enough rain to appreciate the sun even more. We pray you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive and everlasting. We pray you enough pain so that even the smallest of joys in life may appear bigger. We pray you enough gain to satisfy your wanting. We pray you enough loss to appreciate all that you possess. We pray you enough hellos to get you through the final good-bye.God bless you and keep you in his tender care. Love you always -

Chrissy, I am so sorry for your loss, I will be thinking of you and the family, and I would have been there with everyone, however my three major surgeries this past year has been rough and especially this broken knee has given me some terrible pain. I know tomorrow will be a rough day, but God will get you through. My heart has been broken many times over the loss of my love ones and I thought I couldn't make it through but I did. I won't say I know how you feel, because I can sympathize with you, but until a person gives up a spouse they do not know that feeling. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Love you, Louise and family
