I am so sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences at this time. This is truly a travesty, Ecc.9:11 says that "time and unexpected events overtake us all" but the bible also tells us at Isaiah 26:19 that "your dead ones will live...they will rise up". Something that I have found to be a great source of comfort are the thoughts expressed in the Bible at John 5:28,29 where we see that there is going to be a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death. Also Revelation 21:4 we see that God is going to eliminate all of the causes for why we deal with sorrow, pain and even death itself. This gives us the hope to see our dead loved ones again. To hear their laugh and see their smile. My prayers and condolences are with the family. It is my sincere hope that these thoughts bring your family, comfort at this time. Once again I am so sorry for your loss.

Don and Peg, I do not know either of you very well, but what I do know is that you are both kind, gentle people who are now living with a broken heart. A few years ago, you Don, sang at a memorial service at Pontiac Park for those of us who have had children of ours enter eternal life before us, the parents. Don, while you were singing so beautifully, Peg, you were holding an umbrella over the both of us, as I wept for my son. Peg, you were very compassionate and kind. I hope that in your time of sorrow I or others around you can provide you with that same comfort you provided for me. May the love of the Lord embrace you all. Peace and Prayers- Mary Rose

I went to Kate's facebook page last night and saw the pictures of her beautiful family. Her comment to someone, when asked how her life was going, "Lots of 4 year old drama and infant sleeplessness, but I wouldn't have it any other way! I love my little beaners!" I hope someone saves that for the kids to read someday. After reading about all of her life accomplishments and seeing her picture, there is little doubt who her parents are. A little mini-me of both of you. So wish we could be there as you celebrate her life....but please know you are loved and prayers are being said. I am still stunned by the news, and wishing I could be closer to extend personal support.I feel a sense of gratitude for having had the opportunity to meet with Kate and Matt as they prepared to celebrate their marriage promises...I think they were the only couple I ever prepared, who wrote their own processional music and sang their own songs for their own wedding mass! (Go figure)...Not only do I recall their unique blending of personalities and their complimentarity...but I mostly recall Kate's honest and personal relationship with Christ...her searching and her questions...and the need for faith to be "real"...There was a simplicity in her expectations of church yet a "biggness" in her faith in a "big God"!...Amid the shock... and the questions... and the deep saddness...Know without a doubt, that Kate Kneue Smoker, a daughter, a mom... a sister, a wife... a teacher, a friend...a musician and performer...was most certainly a woman of faith...and now, she rejoices in the presence of a God bigger than she even ever imagined...And that same God...risen from the dead in Christ Jesus...is also near to you in your hours of suffering and loss...This coming week envelopes us in that mystery...I wish I could be with you in person Thursday...Know you all are in my thoughts and prayers...Much peace...Know you are loved, Your friend,FrT im Kummerer
