I went to St. Joseph"s school with Denise and she was the greatest. We seen each other every day for 8 years and still kept in touch with one another after graduation. We lost in touch and later found another but was unable to get together. I wish now that I would of taken the time. I believe that God put us on earth for a certain amount of time. When we have touched and inspired all that god has given us to do he then calls us home. Denise lived a short time here on earth but boy she is going to live forever in heaven with our Savior and be happy and no more pain. Denise will be watching down on her family and friends and you will know when you have been touched by a angel. Rest in peace.Dolores Smith Tomanek
