There is still not a day that goes by that I do not think about you. I will never forgive myself for those times that I didn't call or visit. I still remember those last days when things weren't going well for you how nice you were to other people. I wish I was half the person that you are. You told the nurse before you passed that I was at your bedside everyday. Although I wasn't, I am happy that you thought I was. You were a strong lady....that keeps me going each day. I love and miss you with all my heart. Your son, Shawn

When I visit this page my heart just breaks thinking about you. I think back to those summers that I came to visit and have nothing but good memories. I enjoy telling your grandson Grant all the good times we had, especially those times at Riverside Drive. What I wouldn't do to be able to spend one more day with you.
