There is nothing that adds shock to our sadness as the passing of our beloved friend, Tiger. I am perplexed, sadden, and shocked. We are bereaved of this ingenious man. He was the epitome of kindness, goodness, and Samaritan. There's no denying that we were blessed to have known him and his family. He will be missed immensely. To his kindred spirit Terry, I'm left shattered and feeling helpless. May God give you strength and courage in the years ahead. Hello darkness my old friend. In medias res.

Such a kind Man, Tiger was one of the nicest guys I've known, I had the pleasure of playing music with him many moons ago - He was very talented. Tiger always had time and took interest in my life and would do anything for me - He literally made you want to be a better person. Such a terrible mis hap with his surgery, I always prayed that some how, some way, he would pull through - I know his Wife and family and friends are devastated as I am, Paul until we get to jam again - I love you Brother, you'll always be in my heart.

Remembering my sweet, kind nephew and knowing he is now in God's hands makes it important to hold tight the memories for comfort. He is at peace for that I am sure and if there is a band in heaven, he is leading it. Life brings tears, smiles, and memories. The tears dry, the smile fades but the memories live on forever. Tiger will be in our hearts forever. Love you, Aunt Wava
