I would like to thank all the wonderful employees of Staples for coming to the wake and funeral and for sending that beautiful bouquet of flowers and basket. Damond always spoke fondly of you all and I always knew he had a real 2nd family with you all. God bless you all. We will all miss him but will see him again one day. Kevin, thank you for always being there for him and checking up on him while he was on his sick leave. it really meant a lot to him and me. Barbara

Barbara Caffey lit a candle in honor of Damond.

My son was the apple of my eye. I loved him unconditionally with all my heart and soul and to have him taken from me so suddenly, I am at a loss for words. He and I were a team and I would have done anything for him. If I could have given him my heart, literally, I would have. He had so much more things to do in this life. "I will miss you until my dying day, my sweet, wonderful boy. God took you probably because he has more exciting things for you to do with him. I will be with you one day...soon. All my love and heart, Mom"
