It's hard to imagine Mr. Zaborniak being gone. (and yes even in m 60's I can only call him Mr. Z) Growing up he was always a good neighbor. He loved to keep his yard immaculate, grass in the summer and walks in the winter. Deepest condolences to Diane, Eddy and Lynny. My thoughts and prayers are with you.He will be missed!Herb Jacoby Jr.

We baby boomers seem to have a saying, "you'll never forget where you were the day we first landed on the moon." Well, that holds true for me as well. I was fishing with my little cousin Eddie and my Uncle Ed Zaborniak. The fish were biting and we caught a mess of them. We fried them in a big black skillet and ate them on the spot. High adventure courtesy of an old blue Rambler station wagon full of masonry tools. What a glorious day full of great memories.Rest in Peace Uncle Ed Zaborniak.Kim A. Klekota
