Andy,I was very sorry to hear about your wife. I don't know if you remember me: I was your accordion buddy many years ago. We had some good times. I still play occasionally. I run into Sherry (Sprague) Smith every so often.Again, please accept my condolences on your loss.Jim Harssema

Andy, Mike, and Kelly,It seems like yesterday that I was waving at your Mom as she walked by our house. Lots of good memories of our kids playing together, too. I always enjoyed talking with her. May you be comforted by your faith now and always.
