Born on April 15, 1932, in Pidhaitsi, Ukraine, Zenon was the beloved son of Reverend Yaroslav and Lubomyra (Kobrynska). In 1951, he immigrated with his family to the United States, embarking on a new chapter in his life filled with promise and opportunity.

A veteran of the United States Army, Zenon served his country during the Korean War as a translator and intelligence analyst. After his distinguished service and honorable discharge from the United States Army, Zenon studied mechanical design at Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan and Fenn College in Cleveland, Ohio. My prayers and condolences to the family. Roman, may God's peace help you and your family through this difficult time. I only had the honor to work with Zen for three years but we became friends and he taught me so much that I still use today. Memory: Zen and Hilde got us a set of 6 Pilsner glasses for our wedding in 1997, I still have 1 of those glasses left that I haven't broke!!With deepest sympathy,John Matotek
