Virginia Lea Fetty Bigrigg

APR 13, 1936 - FEB 15, 2025

Virginia Lea Fetty Bigrigg (née Westfall) passed away peacefully becoming a beautiful angel on Saturday, February 15, 2025, at the Ames Family Hospice, surrounded by love. Born on April 13, 1936, in Baxter, West Virginia, Virginia was the cherished daughter of Cecil Ray Westfall and Eula Jackson Poole.

Virginia lived a full and meaningful life, dedicating many years of service to Lorain Community Hospital before her retirement. She had a vibrant spirit and found great joy in the simple pleasures—bowling with friends and cheering from the stands as she proudly watched her grandson and great-grandson play baseball.

Above all, Virginia's heart belonged to her family. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother who found her greatest happiness in the time spent with those she loved. Her unwavering support, warm smile, and kind presence will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

She is lovingly survived by her daughter, Terry Fetty Kamfolt; sons, Walter Fetty Jr. and Bret Fetty Jr.; nine grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and five great-great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her brothers, Cecil Westfall and Chuck (Jan) Westfall.

Virginia was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Clyde Westfall; and her sister, Judy Mae Szfcek.

Private funeral services were held under the care and direction of Dovin and Reber Jones Funeral & Cremation Center. The family invites those who wish to honor Virginia's memory to leave condolences online at www.dovinreberjones.com.

Virginia's legacy of love, strength, and devotion will continue to live on in the hearts of her family and all who were fortunate to know her.
