“ Having a really hard time with the loss of my love Suzanne so I want to share something with you all.
During the time I spent with Sue reading playing music and mostly talking knowing I wouldn't get a response I asked her. If there was any way at all to let me know she is Ok PLEASE let me know.
After her passing I was at our boat dock having a hard time emotionally and this song played on the radio. I thought I want this for the picture collage at the celebration of life. Didn't write any info down thought I would remember but I didn't.
This morning I searched internet couldn't find it and told Sue I will find it. Today is when she is being cremated I went to the facility and sat there for some time as I was leaving the song played. I took a picture so that I would not forget it. Text it to my Sister Michelle she called and asked have you heard the whole song I said no.
I have listened to it many times now and I know this
Suzanne is Happy, Flying and Free
Share with our family
Love you all David

“ I don't think I have to tell anyone reading this what an amazing and selfless woman my aunt SueSue was. I can't believe I'm even writing this to be honest. I can't just write about 1 specific favorite memory because she made every single moment an amazing memory. She was the best aunt to every one of us kids. I'm going to miss her smile, her laughter and most of all those amazing hugs. Uncle Dave, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Aunt SueSue will be missed by so many people. We love you aunt SueSue.

“ There are not many people in this world that I can honestly say this about!
There was NEVER a time that I ve been in Suzie's presence and go away not feeling better and loved!
Her beautiful smile and infectious laughter, her kind and loving nature will always be missed whenever I think of my beautiful cousin.
Dave, to say I'm sorry for your loss does not feel adequate!
I'm not saying she was perfect but she certainly was perfectly wonderful and our world is a sadder place without her in it! Prayers for everyone who loved her!

“ Condolence to all the family from Houston Texas. Sue was a good friend during my years at Clearview which hold alot of fond memories. During band practice, away games, during school and even after graduation on a few occasions that I return to Lorain after moving away. Memories of Sue are a cheerful, lovable, funny and caring person.

May God comfort the Landy (Vanover) family, Sue's husband and everyone that will greatly miss her.

May we be reminded that we do not mourn as someone that does not have hope. Our hope is that one day we will see her again in our glorified bodies.

1 Thes. 4:14

Now we do not want you to be uninformed, believers, about those who are asleep [in death], so that you will not grieve [for them] as the others do who have no hope [beyond this present life]. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

May God's peace,faithfulness and assurance be your strength.

“ Suzanne, geography has not allowed us to get together often. Every time I would come to Ohio, we would always make time to get together. Usually, those meetings would include Denise. I never felt as honored as when I was able to be in the presence of you two. Such kindness, love and comfort I have never witnessed at one time. Even though those meetings only happened about every four years, it was like we never were apart. The side-splitting laughter during those meetings will be held in my memory forever.

My selfish side is angry that you had to go home so soon. My spiritual side is saying I am so happy that you are walking in the love and comfort of Our Lord Jesus. I look forward to someday meeting with you and Denise to continue our loving chats.

Dave, I wish that there were words that could heal your heart. I can only say that in Heaven there isn't pain and discomfort. I will continue that God will provide comfort for your pain.
